

Transforming Society:

Trends and Models in Community Leadership and Social Development

The ICSD2015 International Symposium theme: “Transforming Society” emphasizes change amidst new and emerging issues in social development. Strong social and community leadership is needed to tackle the problems of an increasingly polarized and troubled world. Vibrant models of social development for transforming communities will be highlighted along with the challenges and opportunities facing our societies in the coming decades.

Abstract Submission Deadline: March 31st, 2015

Presenters are advised to submit abstracts (either in English or Chinese, for presentation in Chinese Panels only) to the Conference website. Abstracts should include the following details and sequence: Presenter’s details (names, addresses, telephone numbers, email, affiliation, position and title), Title of Paper (not to exceed 20 words), Keywords (4 to 5), Abstract (between 300-500 words).

For further information go to: <http://icsd2015.unisim.edu.sg/>

Contact Dr Steve Chan, ICSD2015 Secretariat: icsd2015@unisim.edu.sg

Co-hosts

Supporting Partners

