

INVITATION TO 2015 ICSD INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM IN SINGAPORE

International Consortium for Social Development is pleased to extend an invitation to you to meet in Singapore for ICSD 2015, 7-10 July.

The theme of the 19th International Symposium: "Transforming Society: Trends and Models in Community Leadership and Social Development" deals with key international social development issues and social change at the local, regional, and international levels. It emphasizes good governance, as well as new and emerging issues in social development requiring attention. Strong community leadership is needed to tackle the problems of an increasingly polarized and troubled world.

Applicants for the ICSD 2015 Symposium are advised to submit abstracts via E-mail attachment of a PDF file or video to icsd2015@unisim.edu.sg, or online at <http://www.unisim.edu.sg/icsd2015> Please register online and early for the conference.

Singapore is truly remarkable as a cosmopolitan society, multicultural in her population and a worthwhile consideration as a model for social development. Transformed from a fishing village, Singapore today is a dynamic city, at the crossroads of world with modern high-rise and landscaped gardens embodying the finest of both the East and the West. Not only is the diversity of culture enriching, traditions and modernity finds home here embraced by constant social change and people development.

We look forward to welcoming you in fascinating Singapore!

Professor TAN Ngoh Tiong
Chair, Organising Committee and Dean, SIM University
